TWELVE PAGES

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We suggest you get your lunch of oyster stew at Jacobs's Coffee Rooms, 47

1200 new books for all classes of readers, Just open at Clapp & Jones's. 46-tf. Mrs W. H. Barrett, manicuring, facial and scalp treatment, 43 Main street, Brattleboro. Telephone 138-1. 53-16

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Grange Store will be held in Grange hall, Friday, Jan. 14, at 1.20 p. m. C. S. HOPKINS, Clerk.

BRATTLEBORG.

The annual meeting of the Unitarian society will be held Tuesday evening. The next ladies' night meeing of the evening.

The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the rest room Tues-day afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Ten new members have been added to the board of trade recently, making a total membership of about 175. Rexford Benson and Mrs. Maud E.

Bradley were married Wednesday, Dec. 29, by Rev. Dr. John R. Gow in the Baptist parsonage. The Avery Strong company will give a matinee Saturday of next week. A heaping measure of enjoyment for a little money seems to be their motto.

The Ladies' Enterprise society will meet with Mrs. A. E. Thomas, Pleasant street, next Wednesday afternoon at 4. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. Everybody is invited. A cottuge prayer meeting, in charge of Class No. 12 of the First Baptist Bible school, will be held at the home of Chas. E. Downer, 6 Cottage street, Esteyville, Wednesday evening at 7.30. The teachers' training class of the Congregational church will meet Monday evening at 7.45 with Mrs. Louis Whitney on High street. The subject will be "Criminal tendencies of children." The women of the Baptist church will serve a supper in the social rooms next Thursday evening. All are invited to remain for the social hour and entertain-ment which will follow the supper. The Brattleboro Water Works company will be ready to turn on the hig essure within a few days. The bailiffs have not been notified yet, and no high pressure water will be turned on until due notice has been given. Dr. William B. Chase, a native of Whitingham, died in Lynn Tuesday evening following a shock of paralysis. He for merly was postmaster of Swampscott and later was in the drugg business. He was a relative of Lawyer C. S. Chase of this

The week of prayer is being observed in the Methodist church. The first service was held Sunday evening, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mark H. Sharples. The closing service will be held at 7.30 tonight. The subjects considered have been those furnished by the Evangelical Alliance.

The Odd Fellows will hold the seventh in their series of dances next Friday evening. Both halls will be open. Every one is invited to attend and to enjoy dancing on the new floor in the large hall. There will be extra music for the

OF MI

If I tories how c their CAUT

SA

MASTE

40

Beaut miss the young a

PRICES

A. W.

Carll

Oval

н.

Sanders. A devotional service was held during the closing hour of the year.

President Dennison Cowles of the board of trade has received a message from Springfield, Mass., stating that the board trade of that place would come to Brattleboro Friday, Jan. 14, on a pleasure trip. They will come up on a special train leaving Springfield at I o'clock in the afternoon. On the arrival of the train the visitors will be met by barges from H. R. Brown's stable and will be taken on a sleighride about this locality. a banquet will be served at the Brooks House in the early evening. All the ar-rangements have been made by the Springfield organization, but the Brattle-boro board of trad- intends to do the honors as far as possible without interfering with the plans already made. A special joint meeting of the house and entertainment committee and the direc-tors will be held this evening to make the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattieboro behind me in the noise to save and F. B. Pier and E. W. Blodgett were and with that the poem closes. appointed appraisers and commissioners. notify him to be present. Gibson &

The French-Raymond contest went another round before the supreme court in Montpeller Wednesday, when it was heard on a demurrer to the amended bill of complaint brought by Watson S. French. In the original bill the plaintiff charged that the defendant had perjured himself at the original hearing before the arbitrators. The supreme court decided arbitrators. The supreme court decided that perjury was not a cause for setting the verdict of the court saide. The plaintiff then brought an amended bill charging that the defendant had kept a wit-ness from testifying in the original hear-ing by getting him to go out of the state. In the demurrer to the amended bill the defendant claims that this does not affect the merits of the case even if it were true. It was stated by F. E. Barber, counsel for Mr. Raymond, at the hearing Wednesday that the witness in question was within three miles of the place is which the original hearing was held at the time and that the plaintiff did not waterman are counsel for Mr. Prench, but C. C. Fitts represented them at the barrier Wednesday.

The body of Mrs. Ellen O'Brien, 73, for-merly of Hinsdale, N. H., who died in Everett, Mass., was brought to Brattle-boro Sunday and placed in the tomb in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Nearly all of the barn on Williston Hawley to C. C. Pitts has been removed by D. M. Barber, to whom Mr. Fitts sold it. The barn is being taken down care-fully, and it will be set up on Mr. Barber's farm.

Pocahontas council has elected the following officers: Pocahontas, Miss Eva Shepardson: Winona, Mrs. John O'Nell; prophetess, Miss Helen Leahy; Powhatan, John Birch; keeper of wampum, Miss Kale Leahy; collector of wampum, Mrs. Flora Ellis: chief of records, Mrs. Flora

The fourth division of the woman's as The following the Congregational church in West Brattleboro will serve a supper Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. At 8 o'clock there will be an address by Miss Graffam of Sivas, Turkey, who is in this country on a furlough. This will be collowed by the control of the country of the control of the country of followed by the annual mite-box open-

The Unitarian church was the handsomest building in town yesterday. The cold weather and the moisture in the air furing the night caused a heavy formation of white frost which covered every part of the exterior, and the grey stones beneath the frost produced a rarely beautiful hue which attracted the attention

The death of Florida Starr Brown Manny, 67, took place on Christmas morning in Rockford, Ili. As Flora Starr she was well known in her girlhood in Brattleboro, where she was a pupil in the boarding school of Rev. and Mrs. Addison Brown, and a frequent visitor in their family. In 1963 she was married in Washington, D. C., by Rev. William Henry Channing, to Lieut, Coi, Addison Brown, jr., who died in 1865. In 1867 her sister, Elizabeth Starr, became the wife of his brother, Charles W. Brown, and n 1868 she was married to John P. Manny

Mrs. Margaret Golden, 67, mother of Mrs. J. J. Clune of Brattleboro and a trequent visitor here, died Wednesday at her home in Glens Falls, N. Y., after a short illness. She was born in Ireland and came to this country when about 23 years old, settling in Warrentown, N. Y. She married John Golden of Glens Palls and has lived in that town since. She leaves four daughters in Glens Falls, Margaret, Elizabeth, Mary and Nellie, Mrs. James Quinn of New York and Mrs. Clune, also a son, Michael Golden of Glens Falls, Mrs. Clune went to Glens

A watch night social with about 200 in and pushed her about a room and serzed and pushed her about a room and serzed and pushed her about a room and serzed her by the arms on Oct. 4, and that on Oct. 10 he seized her, made unwarranted proposals and finally beat and bruised was Miss Brisbois claims that she was and that cluding songs by Mrs. W. H. Bond. Mrs.
Cortes Farnum, Miss Alice Butterfield and Luther W. Hawley, Jr., and by a double male quartet, plano selections by Miss Ellen Sherman and Miss Jessic Hawley and readings by Miss Eloise Sanders A developing service was held. sued Mr. Brisbois for $2000 for an alleged assault upon him with a pitchfork as the result of an altercation over the ownership of some hay. Mr. Brisbois had property which was placed under attachment to secure the claim, but Dupuls has no property and he was taken to the county jail at Newfane. The town of Whitingham will have to pay his board there just as Brattlebore is paying the board of Guy Doolittle. Chase & Daley are counsel for Dupuis, and Brisbois is represented by Gibson & Waterman.

Owing to the fact that the last Saturday in December was a holiday the mouthly session of the probate court was postponed to Friday. License was granted to Charles F. Rice, administrator of the Fayette M. Rice estate of Wardsboro, to sell the real estate. The will of Mary G. Walte of Brattleboro was al-lowed and Frank M. Smith was appointed administrator with the will annexed, furnishing a bond of 360,000 A. P. Car-penter and Kittredge Haskins were appointed commissioners. The account of George B. Williams as administrator of the John H. Merrifield estate of Williams-ville was allowed. The will of Henry N. Tyler of Halifax was allowed and Dudley boro, was allowed. The account of W. D. Smith, administrator of the W. H. Bray-ton estate of Brattleboro, was allowed. During the last few days of the month there were various transactions, among them the following: A. P. Carpenter and

The regular monthly meeting of the Brattleboro Mutual Ald association will be held Monday at 3.30 at the headquar-ters, 34 North Main street.

The Direct Importing company, dealers in tea, coffee, spices, etc., has opened a place of business in room 2, American building. The rooms have been fitted up in specially attractive Japanese style and they present a marked foreign appear-ance. The specialties of the company are high-grade tens and coffee. They will keep open house tomorrow and will give samples of their tea and coffee to all who visit the rooms.

The stereopticon lecture under the aus ersalist church Sunday evening was on "Egypt, where civilization began." The sories of sides was unusually good, 100 being shown in all, and the talk which accompanied them was interesting and instructive. Next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock the lecture will be on "Rome, the centre of the world," and it will be justrated by many beautiful views.

Francesco Calebretto, one of the gang of Italians employed by Crosby & Parker Springfield, this state, was sentenced the Windsor county court Friday to having been convicted of killing Batista Carusco, another member of the gang. Sentence was imposed by Judge Willard W Miles of Barton. Antonio Laprete, who was in the fight in which Carusco lost his life, pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault with the intent to kill, but after the jury was drawn he collapsed and pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to hard labor in the state prison for not se than two years and not more than three years.

Announcement was made Monday the marriage of Emerson B. Wilson and Miss Blanche F. Drown which took place the day before Thanksgiving in the lome of the bride's mother, Mrs. Etta Drown The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. Trout, paster of the Universalist church, the double ring service being used. The bride was dressed in white batiste, and they were unattended. Only the members of the families knew of the wedding and many friends of both were much surprised to learn of it this week. Mr and Mrs. Wilson left Sunday for a wedding trip. On their return they will live on Walker place. Mr. Wilson has a position in J. H. Allen's Brooks House barber shop and the bride has been em-She married John Golden of Glens and has lived in that town since. I warner's bakery are and Mrs. Willeaves four daughters in Glens Falls, last night.

Mrs. James Quinn of New York and Mrs. Clune, also a son, Michael Golden of Glens Falls. Mrs. Clune went to Glens Falls as week, when her mother was taken critically ill, and Mr. Clune went there Wednesday night.

The Brattleboro Woman's club meeting Wednesday was postponed from afternoon to 8.39 p.m., as the storm delayed Mrs. Hall, the speaker, so that she did not reach here until the carly evening train. The small audience which braved the storm was well rewarded by a very At the Brattleboro postoffice during the

A. C. Griffin of Worcester against Daniel Sherwin of Jamaica. Another session in the same cause will be held Wednesday
L. the county clerk's office.

mother the no less well-known Julia Ward Howe, the author of the Battle self conspicuous in the Salvation army during the summer and fall, left town Monday without saying anything to her Brisbois, daughter of Charles Brisbois.

The suit is brought for alloged assault, the writ setting up four counts on two different dates in October. It is charged that Dunuis assaulted her with his fists and pushed her about a room and seized her by the arms on Oct. 4, and that on ger arrived. The freight train sent out a dagman to hold the passenger train at the lower end of the yard and the passenger picked up the dagman and pulled into the yard at a low speed. The snow which was falling obscured the view and neither engineer saw the other engine until too ite to avoid running together. less than an hour.

A Chance for Brattleboro Poets.

Will Carleton, the poet and author, will appear in a new lecture in the Auditorium Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Christian union, and his many admirers in Brattleboro are planning to there in full force. His appearance will be attended by an unusual feature. When Mr. Carleton came to Brattlebaro recently to speak in the Universalist church be had distributed copies of an unfinished poem composed by him and entitled "The Maid of Brattleboro." The people of the town are asked to read the poem and write a second to the copy of the cop able, but copies of it may be had without charge at Freeman Scott's grocery store. The outline of it is as follows: A summer Tyler of Halifax was allowed and Dudley E. Ware was appointed executor. The account of E. L. Roberts, administrator of the Lucilla D. Newell estate of Brattleboro, was allowed. The account of W. D. that the soul of man would cheer; that she might save a human life. At that moment she saw a student in swimming suit struggling in the water, having been them the following: A. P. Carpenter and Carl S. Hopkins were appointed appraisers and commissioners of the Thomas Fenton estate of Brattleboro. Elmer W. Knapp was appointed administrator and S. H. Yeaw and L. G. Snow appraisers and commissioners of the Fayette W. Knapp estate of Newfans. Martha E. Pelitier resigned as executrix of the Onesime Pelitier estate of Brattleboro and Herbert G. Barber was appointed administrator with will annexed. The Brattleboro Trust company was appointed administrator of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the Patrick Heffron estate of Brattleboro in the period of the per enguifed by a wave, and calling franti-cally for help. Here was her chance, and with swift-bearing heart she sprang into

Two persons united with the Congregational church Sunday on confession of faith

The women of the Sedgwick Woman's Relief corps will meet tomorrow. Saturday, evening at 7 o'clock in Grand Army ball for rehearsal.

Levi E. Peck of Westminster and Mrs. Clista Whiten of Brattleboro were married Monday by Town Clerk William S. Newton in his office.

The shadowgraph pictures at the cor chision of the first act in "Buster Brown," in which every member of the company takes part, never fall to win a number of recalls. The play is entirely new this season. It will come to the Auditorium tomorrow, matinee and night

A joint installation of the officers of Sedgwick post, G. A. R., and the Sedg-wick Woman's Relief corps will be held in Grand Army hall Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The public is invited, Fol-lowing the installation there will be speeches, and a musical program will be given. Refreshments will be served by the Relief corps. The women of the corps are requested to carry cake.

The funeral of George F. Whitney was held in the home on Chestnut street Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. D. E. Trout, pastor of the Universalist church, officiated and the bearers were Charles Brockington, George Brockington, August Anderson, Thomas Pers. ton, August Anderson, Thomas Perry, Joseph Perry and Jesse Johnson, The burial was beside the body of Mrs. Whit-ney in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

The women of the Centre Congrega-The women of the Centre Congrega-tional church kept open house at the chapel New Year's day and received many of the church people during the afternoon and evening. The reception was wholly informal, the guests being served refreshments and given an op-portunity to chat with each other and portunity to chat with each other and worthy the hostess. Mrs. F. W. Hall and Miss quickly. Mabel Hunt served at the table. During West the reception there were violin and plane

In the postponed annual meeting of the Universalist Sunday school Sunday these officers were elected: Superintend-ent, J. P. Shurtleff; assistant superinent, J. P. Shurtleff; assistant superintendent Miss May Edwards; secretary, tendent Miss May Edwards; secretary, Miss Alvena Walker; treasurer, Fred Spaulding, Jr.; auditor, Charles G. Smaples; executive committee, Mrs. Fred C. Sargent, Mrs. E. E. Flagg. Rev. D. E. Trout, superintendent and assistant exofficio, librarians, Miss Chioe Franklin and Miss Lighe Banney. and Miss Lizzle Ranney.

In a spirit of fun a patron of Howard & Yearly's livery stable jostled with H. P. Yearly, one of the firm, Saturday afternoon as Mr. Yearly sat tipped back in an arm chair with his feet on the safe. The chair slid from under Mr. Yearly, throwing him once the foor with Mixer gave a report on the national cor-vention held at Rochester, N. Y., September. One of the significant features of the gathering was the presentation of a handsome fountain pen to C. P. Nash, who served as president of the association and has retired from the ter and Saturday morning was fully down to the average of the week, thermometers about the village that morning registering from 12 to 16 below with six more at West Brattleboro. Sunday morning a thermometer which registered 14 below the morning before reached the mark of 18 above at the same hour and an hour later it registered 46 above. If it had been read an hour later Saturday morning the corresponding hours would have shown a difference of nearly 60 degrees. Sunday was like a spring day, but mark of its above at the same hour and an hour later it registered 46 above. If it had been read an hour later Saturday morning the corresponding hours would have shown a difference of nearly 60 degrees. Sunday was like a spring day, but Sunday night the wind began to blow and on Monday morning the foregrees. people of the town are saked to read the poem and write a sequel to it, either in prose or poetry. The sequels will be read by Mr. Carleton at the Auditorium, and valuable prizes will be awarded, compevaluable prizes will be awarded. valuable prizes will be awarded, competent judges deciding upon the merits of the different sequels. The length of the poem makes publication of it impracticable, but copies of it may be had without tharge at Freeman Scott's grocery store. low in the cast village and from 20 to 25 below at West Brattleboro. The cold continued unabated Wednesday and everybody prepared for a big blizzard when the snow began to fall. Another sudden change came Wednesday night and yesterday morning it was barely below the freezing point. The rain and low the freezing point. The rain and sleet during the night had frozen onto the buildings and trees, giving them a white coating and creating some novel and interesting effects in architecture. This morning the temperature is still higher. Within the past six days the mercury has traveled up and down enough to aggregate more than 200 de-grees.

The employes of the Vermont Printing company were given a banquet by the company at the Brooks House Saturday wening. The banquet was followed by evening.

A kitchen range which was being moved from the building in which the bakery on Elliot street is located was wrecked Tuesday afternoon. It was suspended from a window on the third story, when come part of the moving apparatus gave out, letting the stove fall to the ground, striking on a stairway at the end of the building.

The vital statistics for 1909 have been compiled by Assistant Town Clerk Carl S. Hopkins. The records show 137 births in town and 195 deaths. Of the deaths 71 were at the Retreat and should not be taken as any indication of the general health conditions in the town, and eight more were at the hospital. Eliminating the Retreat deaths the record shows a substantial balance on the right side of the ledger.

The commissioned officers of the Vermont National Guard will meet for instruction and drill in Waterbury Jan. 25 and 26. Col. J. Gray Eatey of Brattle-boro will direct the course of instruction and be and Maj. H. E. Dyer of Rutland and Capt. George H. Thompson of Bellows Falls will constitute a board to observe and report upon the work ac-complished at the school for the infor-mation of the commander-in-chief.

Capt. B. Hoke, who has charge of the Brattleboro branch of the Salvation Army, has received numerous calls for clothing for men, women and children. Any who have clothing which they can spare are urged to send it to the Salvation Army hall on Elliot street or to notify Capt. Hoke by post card addressed to 9 Elm street or by telephone, 73-2, and it will be called for. The appeal is worthy and should be responded to West river bridge will be raised to its new height within a few days if the weather conditions permit. On Wednesday morning the selectmen visited the bridge with Superintendent of Bridges DeRoster of the Boston & Maine rallroad, who has taken the contract to raise the bridge for the Connecticut River Power company. Mr. DeRosier told the selectimen what ought to be done to put the bridge in the best possible shape, but he did not think it wise to make the reairs with the bridge to make the reairs. to make the repairs until the bridge had been raised to its new position. The selectmen made arrangements for him to selectmen made arrangements for him to take charge of the repairs when they are made. Mr. DeRosler plans to raise the bridge quickly and it will be closed for travel only a day or two. While it is closed feams may cross the river on the lee, leaving the main highway at the Brailley farmhouse and going across the Refreat meadows to Linden street. Mr. DeRosler's plan is to lift the bridge from the ice. He started yesterday to build a large wooden horse beneath the centre of the bridge, and the jacks which will

Mrs. Hall, the speaker, so that she do not reach new the post general state and the word of the post general and the storm was well rewarded by a very pleasing stalk on Mrs. Hall's personal registration of pleasing stalk on Mrs. Hall's personal registration as Longfolow, Oliver and the total weight of second-class matter made by the post general control of the state of the state

half, There will be extra mixed for the The Memorial in portal with operation of the ward patients Studay from a control of the ward of the series of a Bunday from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the ward of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control of the series of the Studay from a control

Death of O. H. Stickney. Orland Harvey Stickney, 63, who had

Scott & Son. They conducted the business a number of years and then sold it to H. W. Simonds. After the sale Mr. Stickney worked in various grocery stores in town and about two years ago he gave up active work. He had been in failing health the past year. He married Miss Emma M. Houghton, daughter of David and Sophronia (Putnam) Houghton of Whitingham, Oct. 29, 1871. Besides his wife he leaves a son. Clarence L. Stick. wife he leaves a son, Clarence L. Stick-ney, assistant cashier of the Peoples National bank, and a daughter, Stella, wife of Warren M. Miller of Springfield. while of Warren at Miller of Springheid, this state, and two brothers, M. W. Stickney of Rutland and I. L. Stickney of Athel. He was a charter member of Unity lodge, P. and A. M., of Jacksonville. This fodge, F. and A. M., of Jacksonville, The funeral was held in the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. D. E. Trout, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. More than 2d Free Masons from Bruttleboro and a delegation from Unity lodge of Jacksonville attended and the Masonic service was conducted for Unity lodge of Jacksonville attended and the Masonic service was conducted. Col. Kittredge Haskins acting as master. Walter S. Stearns sang. Among those present were D. M. Wheeler, Gilman Hap-Dr. Thomas Rice moved this week from Crosby block to his new offices over the Vermont savings bank.

An increase in pension to $40 a month from Dec. 3, 1909, has been allowed Bo-manzo G. Rice of Brattleboro.

The many Brattleboro admirers of Mrs. Ida Jenness Moulton, the reader, will be pleased to know that she will fill a return engagement here in March.

The sucrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in the Methodist church Sunday. Nine persons were received on probation and three were received by etter.

Miss Plorence Humenway, who attended the Student's Volunteer conference in Rochester, which is reported in another column, will speak on the conference at the Centre club meeting Sunday evening In the business meeting of the ladies' society of the Universalist church yesterday afternoon final plans were made for the annual fair which will be held Jan. 27. Early in the evening an excellent supper was served and later the annual results of reasons took place. ental of pews took place.

Ralph Oakes, who played left forward for the Bellows Falls Athletic club, was high scorer Friday evening, when Bellows Falls defeated the Newport, N. H., team 79 to 18. Oakes secured 15 baskets, 11 in the first period, and his opponent scored ony once during the entire game.

At the joint installation of the Grand Army post and Woman's Rellef corps Tuesday night there will be music and songs by Mrs. A. P. Carpenter, Miss Gertrude E. Matthews, Miss Catherine M. Galvin, Miss Agnes E. Galvin, Miss Anna D. Galvin and Miss Maysie E. Galvin. Judge J. L. Martin held naturalization court in Montpeller Tuesday and presided at a hearing in Rutland yesterday, going from there to New York, where he will hear motions tomorrow relative to sen tences in the sugar fraud cases which were tried before him recently. He will preside at a chancery bearing in New York Monday, returning to Brattleboro the following day.

Mrs. E. E. Flagg entertained the mem bers of her class in the Universalist Sunday school last night at the regular supper served by the women of the church. The class had a special table by themselves and were served by special waitresses. After the support he annual business meeting was held and these offi-cers were elected: President, Mrs. N. D. Clawson, vice president, Miss Daisy Brown; secretary, Miss Mabel Daniels; of the bridge, and the Jacks which will the training school of the Bridgeport hosdo the lifting will be placed upon it. He will put the bridge up as high as is thought necessary and will block up the ends. The concrete abutments will not be laid until warm weather comes.

Mrs. Jeanette Reed Pratt, 71, widow of the training school of the Bridgeport hose bits. There were given a pittal. There her work gave great saits faction, and about eight months ago she thought necessary and will block up the was appointed by the governor of Connecticut a member of the sint board of registration of nurses. Mr. Hart has an excellent business position in Bridgeport.

courts, is thus ranked as No. 4, ahead of the California players who went to Australia to play for the world's championship. Niles holds, among other titles, the National intercollegiate championship and the so-called international championship, played for at Niagara-an-the-Lake.

The Woman's club gave a rare treat to lovers of Shaksperian drama last night, when Hannibal A. Williams gave a reading of "King Henry IV." It was the been identified with the gracery business noon in his home on High street after a three-months' illness with heart disease. He was born in Whitingham Jan. 15, 1846, appreciative audience. As an interest of the control of the control of the storm of the control of Guick Changes in the Weather.

The weather has gone through some antics within a week that would entitle it to a place on a vaudeville stage. Last week was the coldest of any of the winter and Saturday morning was fully down to the average of the week, therchestra played. Mr. Williams was intro-duced by Mrs. C. C. Fitts, president of the Woman's club.

Measles have furnished the chief topic Measles have furnished the chief topic of conversation in the school department this week as the result of an outbreak of the disease in the fourth grade in the high school building. Before the Christmas vacation one of the pupils in that room came down with measles, but he had been in the room only one day after room came down with measles, but he had been in the room only one day after his return from the hospital, where a minor operation was performed on him, and it was thought that he had not exposed the other children. The first of this week, however, the extent of the centarion began to be apparent. In to contagion began to be apparent. Up to yesterday noon Health Officer Henry Tucker had quarantined 16 houses where pupils from that grade were ill, several more are under close observation. It is believed that the full crop has been reached from this source, and extra pre-cautions are being taken to prevent fur-ther contagion. All the school teachers have been notified to send home any child who seems to have a hard cough or a head cold, as these are preliminary Wilfred F. Root guarantees Mi-c-na tablets to stop dyspetic agony in five minutes and cure obstinate cases of indigestion in a few weeks. They turn old stomachs into new ones. Try them for any stomach trouble. Only 50 cents a large box.

*Arranged for strings by Mr. Hall symptoms of the disease. Many children are out of school from these causes but there is little probability that they are coming down with measles. The situation is not at all alarming and is well under control. There are two other cases of measles in town.

*Arranged for strings by Mr. Hall symptoms of the disease. Many children are out of school from these causes but there is little probability that they are coming down with measles. The situation is not at all alarming and is well under control. There are two other cases of measles in town.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Clarence Wyman was in East Burke W. J. Cain returned Wednesday from Fred H. Harris returned to Dartmouth ollege Wednesday.

Rev. E. W. Sharp is in Hardwick this reek assisting Dr. Newell. C. D. Noyes of Colrain was in Brattle-oro yesterday on business.

Miss Eligabeth Denning of Athol spent lunday with her parents here. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Tucker returned from their honeymoon trip Saturday.

Arthur L. Billings was called to Montaie yesterday by the serious lifness of his John Nesbitt of Springfield Mass., spent unday with his parents in West Bratleboro. J. Gray Estey and J. Harry Estey are pending the week in New York on Walter S. Pratt of Springfield, Mass., was a visitor in town the latter part of the week.

Perley Martin was a guest of his brother and sister in Springfield, Mass., over Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Prescott of Vernon were with their son in Springfield, Mass., C. C. Quimby has returned to his work t the Estey organ plant after being away iree weeks. Miss Mamie Curran of Hinsdale is visitng her sister, Mrs. Archie Stockwell of Mr. McBride of Middletown, Conn.

spent the holidays at Clarence Wyman's n Pine street. Mrs. Robert Nesbitt and two children were holiday guests of her brother in Springfield. Mass.

Miss Mary Shakshober, the librarian, returned Wednesday after a visit at her home in Bennington.

Miss Ruth Snow of Mariboro is visiting at the home of her uncle, William Brayan, on Birge street. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hibbart will begin housekeeping in the Doolittle building on Lanal street this week. Mrs. Frazier Howard of Bellows Fails attended the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Jennie R. Pratt, Tuesday.

Herbert F. Brooks made a New Year's sit with old friends in Brattleboro, returning to Athol Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prescott were Christmas visitors with their brother and family in Springfield, Mass.

Miss Jessie Hawley and Miss Josephine Toeds returned to Boston this week to resume their music studies. W. F. Root was in Montpeller Tuesday and Wednesday to attend a meeting of the state board of pharmacy. Miss Ellen Sherman returned Wedneslay to Mt. Holyoke college after spending Thurlow Johnson and J. Guibeen fell both being unable to work for a time. Miss Lucy Litch of Lowell, Mass., was held sister, Mrs. Clarence Wyman of Pine The street. Miss Mary Starkey, chief operator at who took for her subject: the telephone exchange, has gone to Miss Josephine Pheips Springfield, Mass., where she will be toll

> Mr. and Mrs. Harris, who spent the summer with their son, George Harris of Central street, have begun housekeeping on Main street Capt. John E. Moran returned Monday to Great Falls, Montana, after a visit of two weeks with his mother, Mrs. William Moran of Elliot street. Arthur Peach returned Monday to West Newton, Mass., where he is a teacher in a boys' school, after spending a Christmas tacation in Brattleboro.

Dennis E. Tasker of Brattleboro scored he poultry shown at the annual exhibit of the Greenfield Score Card Poultry club

Tuesday and Wednesday. Charles Brockington out off the end of

"Jack" Galvin came Monday morning to visit at his home. It is the first time he has been in Brattleboro since he left he has been in Brattleboro since staying here six years ago. He has been staying in Tonawanda, N. Y., and he returned with his father, John Galvin, who went out to visit him Saturday. W. S. Ingraham, formerly manager of the Brattleboro branch of the Swift Beef company, has resigned his position as manager of the Lynn branch and has taken a similar position with the Schwarschild & Sulzberger company with his headquarters at Bangor, Me. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Sibley entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Sibley entertaine is a family party New Year's and over Sunday. The guests were Miss Eva Swift, Mrs. Sibley's sister; Park Swift and daughter of Atho); Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swift of Brattleboro, Vt., and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Swift of Peru, Vt.—[Rowe correspondence in Springfield Republican. Arthur Monroe returned to New York Monday after a visit of a few days at home. Monroe, who was the mainstay of Wesleyan university in the hox the four years that he was in college, played on a semi-professional team on Long Island Saturday afternoons through last summer, but he says now that he is our

of baseball for good. Fifth Public Rehearsal of the Estey Or-

but he says now that he is out chestra. The Estey orchestra will hold their fifth public rehearsal next Monday even-ing at $ o'clock in the pipe organ erect-ing room as usual. They invite all their friends to spend the evening with them. Thomas Overture Raymond

Gouned Gouned Brepsant Sole for Clarionet Eighth Air and Variations Mr. Wm. O'Donoghue Tschaikowsky Andante Cantabile (for Strings)

*The Mill (for Strings)
*Payaw (for Strings)
Intermezzo Jensen Sharpe Midsummer night's Dream on der Mehden, jr. March-Triumphant